

New Organizations & Initiatives Committee

- Responsible for generating knowledge of resources provided by the Office of Student Involvement to new student organizations
- Assist with the process of approval for new student organizations
- Assist with the implementation and creation of training workshops and/or packet for new organizations that highlights useful services